

Discussion Questions
Franz Wohlfahrt: Standing Firm in Faith

Name _____

1. Shortly after the Anschluss in 1938, Franz found himself in opposition to the Nazi regime. How so?
2. What ultimatum did the SS and SA offer Franz when they came to talk to him? What was his response?
3. Not only did Franz defy the order to comply, but what did he do next?
4. What happened to his father?
5. How did the German authorities try to trick Franz into renouncing his faith? What happened when he refused?

Discussion Questions
Franz Wohlfahrt: Standing Firm in Faith

Name _____

10. Spiritual resistance is a form of nonviolent protest or resistance. Many instances of nonviolent resistance have existed in the post-Holocaust world. What are examples?

11. How have the Internet and other new forms of communication made news of humanitarian injustices more accessible to the public?

12. Does this added accessibility to information automatically lead to a humanitarian response? Why or why not?

13. In the United States there are rallies and other peaceful events designed to draw attention to the genocide in Darfur and the plight of the people in Myanmar, for example. Is this an effective method of resistance? Why or why not?