

THE WALLENBERG LESSON

CARD1

Give names of some rescuers you know or have heard of (fictional or real people):

Give different categories of rescuers (e.g.: soldiers, baywatch staff, etc.):

List some characteristics and features that rescuers may have?

Give names of some heroes you know or have heard about (fictional or real people):

Give some categories of heroes (e.g.: doctors,, warriors, etc.):

List some characteristics and features that heroes may have?

Discuss in the group.

- what are the differences and similarities between rescuers and heroes?
- what does it mean to be a hero?

Name groups of people that need, needed or might need rescue:

Discuss in the group.

- why do these people need to be rescued?
- what characterizes the situation they are in?