

Holocaust Educators Network Summer Seminar on Holocaust Education & Social Justice at Cal State San Marcos

July 23-July 29, 2017

The Holocaust and Cultural Identity in the Classroom

A thematic seminar that will interweave content related to both the Holocaust and present-day experiences of intolerance and persecution. The seminar is inquiry-based, inviting teachers to acknowledge and incorporate the culture of their students into their curriculum and the broader classroom experience. The program takes a writing-based approach to Holocaust and social justice education.

Led by Michelle Sadrena Clark and Jennifer Howard

High Tech High North County Educators and San Marcos Writing Project Fellows

Speakers and events will include:

- Testimony from a Holocaust Survivor
- Speakers from Facing History and Ourselves, Echoes and Reflections and USC Shoah Foundation
- Visit to Museum of Tolerance
- Visit to Museum of Man
- Storytelling workshop
- Shabbat Service, Dinner, Klezmer Performance & more

Participants receive

- Free admission to all field trips and speakers
- All workshop materials
- Membership in the Holocaust Educators Network
- Parking

Participants can receive

- Three units of graduate credit for $80 a unit

To apply, fill out application at:

<https://www.thememoriamlibrary.org/satellite-program/san-diego/>

Apply early! We will cap at 20.

For more information email: Istowell@csusm.edu

ECHOES and REFLECTIONS
Leaders in Holocaust Education

USC Shoah Foundation
The Institute for Visual History and Education